SUMMARY

I am a passionate and results-oriented software developer with a strong foundation in modern web and mobile technologies. Equipped with hands-on experience in Flutter, React.js, and Spring Boot, I develop end-to-end applications that are both efficient and scalable. I am enthusiastic about crafting clean, maintainable code, ensuring top-notch solutions that improve user experiences and meet business objectives. With my ability to adapt quickly to new technologies and work effectively in dynamic environments, I'll be an asset to any innovative startup team.
